

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, November 29. 1705.

From the Leid. Gazette, dated November 26.

Rome, November 7.

THE Pope held t'other Day a new Congregation of State, to consult of Means for adjusting amicably the Differences between this Court and that of Vienna: It appears difficult still to make up those Differences, because 'tis certain the Emperor insists peremptorily on his Demands of Satisfaction for the Injury that have been done him; in particular he insists that Cardinal Paulucci the Pope's chief Minister and Secretary of State, Count Paulucci his Brother, and the Governour of this City, be remov'd from their Employments for having been the Incendiaries and Promoters of the said Differences. On the other side, Cardinal Fourbin in the last Audience he had of the Pope represented to him the good Services those Ministers have render'd to the Holy See, and particularly said the Governour of Rome deserv'd to be promoted to the Dignity of Cardinal. That Cardinal, in another Audience he had of the Pope a few Days ago, notified to him that Prince Eugene of Savoy had been oblig'd to march out of the State of Milan and repass the Oglio with the Imperial Army he commands, by the Vigilance of the Duke of Vendome in opposing all his Designs; and at the same time represented to his Holiness, that the Imperialists having no Magazines in Italy, it would be very difficult for them to subsist, unless they should be permitted to take Winter Quarters in the Ferrareze: He design'd by this to engage the Pope into a Discourse on that Subject; but his Holiness cut him short by telling him he had heard enough of that matter from the Ambassador of Venice. The Bishop of Posnania having been allow'd the Liberty of this City, it was generally thought he would soon be absolutely discharg'd from all Confinement; but he is close imprison'd agen in the Castle of St. Angelo, at the Instances of the Count de Legnaski Envoy of King Augustus of Poland: Which shews the Pope is minded to keep fair with that Prince, and that he has no regard to the Letter lately written to him by the Confederates of Warsaw, to desire him to revoke the Bulls he has publish'd against the Adherents of King Stanislaus.

Falmouth, November 24. Yesterday came in here the Marlborough Dogger of Liverpool, from Virginia; which came away with 30 Sail of Merchant Ships, under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Kingston and Faulkland 7 Weeks since; and was separated from them by bad Weather 2 Days ago.

Dartmouth, November 25. Yesterday came in here the Crow of and for London from Virginia, which was parted from her Convoy the Kingston and Faulkland with 30 other Merchant Ships.

Yarmouth, November 26. On Saturday sail'd hence the Ridge, Sophia, and Jubile Gallies, all laden with Herrings bound for the Streights; and here remains the Janeway, which intends to sail to morrow, if the Weather permit. Yesterday pass'd through these Roads about 30 Sail of laden Colliers, under Convoy of one of Her Majesty's Ships, suppos'd to be the Queenborough.

Harwich, November 27. On Sunday the Dolphin Packet-Boat sail'd from hence with a Mail for Holland; the Chattam and Rochester Prizes are sail'd with the light Ships under their Convoy for Newcastle: The Packet-Boat is not arriv'd with the Mail from Holland.

Plymouth, November 25. This Day came in Her Majesty's Ships the Kent and Cambridge, from the Streights; who parted this Day from Sir Cloudfly Shovel, off this Harbour. Sir Cloudfly Shovel hath with him 12 English Men of War, and several Transports and Prizes.

Portsmouth, November 26. Yesterday came into St. Hellen's Road a Dutch Man of War from Portugal, and under her Convoy 28 Dutch Merchant Ships laden with Salt, bound for Holland: This Day came in from Lisbon Her Majesty's Ships the Orford and Torbay, both from Sir Cloudfly Shovel's Fleet: About 4 in the Afternoon the Dutch Man of War and the Merchant Ships under her Convoy bound for Holland, all sail'd hence; as also the Aaron Frigate of and for London, from Virginia; and about 5 a Clock this Evening came into St. Hellens Road Sir Cloudfly Shovel and Sir Thomas Dilks, with the Royal Sovereign, Namur, Barfleur, Association, Devonshire, Lenox, Revenge, Essex, Eagle, Assurance, Shrewsbury, Yarmouth, Charles Galley, and Tartar. They left Sir Stafford Farborne at Sea in bad Weather. This Day came into St. Hellens Road the Leghorn Galley from Scandaroon.

London,

'Grace of God able, to make you an Acknowledg'ment for this Favour granted to the Merits of his 'Ancestors; and to give to your noble and great
'Mightinesses, and to the whole Republick, further
'essential Marks of his sincere Friendship, Hague, Nov. 23. 1705.

The Roman Essence, a few drops of which dropt in a Basin of warm Water, and set in the middle of a Room, takes away all ill Scents, and Perfumes it to Admiration; it prevents Wrinkles in the Face and Hands, and gives a delightful Flavour, asie dosh likewise to Shirts, Handkerchiefs and Linen. It takes away the ill Smell of Soap, and leaves a most pleasant and lasting Odour, and for preserving the Hair of the Head and Periwigs, it hath not its equal, keeping them from falling off or changing Colour, Strengthens the Hair, and keeps it in the Curl longer than any thing now in use, to be had at Mr. Scamper's at the Angel over against the Mermaid-Tavern

The Original Angelic Tincture for Coughs (by an Honourable and Learned Physician) most certainly becalms the most violent and impetuous Coughs in a Moment, and cures them in a few Days; which many have found true, particularly a Gentleman whose Daughter lay dangerously ill of a violent Cough, and was cur'd thereby in two Nights time, which he came to own himself. Also Gentleman next door to the Red Lion in Fetter-lane, was speedily and wonderfully cur'd thereby of a dangerous Cough, with many more, who gladly came to own the wonderful Benefit they receiv'd thereby, nor hath it fail'd any we can hear of. 'Tis sold only at John's Coffee-house in Swithins-Ally, by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, which 2 Places you are to Note diligently, lest you be deceiv'd by Counterfeits.
Price 2 s. a Bottle.
